

The applicant should provide an internationally recognized and valid English language certificate (Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) level B2 or higher). To demonstrate English proficiency, the applicant must submit one of the following:

- a) an official international language certificate (the main certificates and minimum scores accepted are given below)*;
- b) an English Proficiency Statement from the university, high school or college, confirming that English was the language of instruction;
- c) a certificate issued by a local or international English language instruction provider (e.g. language school), confirming the acquisition of B2 level as a result of a language course the applicant attended.

Alternatively, applicants may take Ilia State University's institutional paper-based or online language test, a passing score indicates English competency equivalent to CEFR level B2.

Note: The English language requirement may be waived if the applicant is a native of a country, or graduated from an English language high school or university in countries where English is the native language.
